 Investment strategy: AIA Sri Lanka maintains a prudent investment strategy for its investment portfolios, in line with its investment philosophy and guidelines as set out in the investment policy. The Company advocates a long-term investment strategy supporting long-term growth. The equity strategy is driven by in-depth research with emphasis on growth and sustainability of earnings whilst principles such as liquidity, solvency and corporate governance also play a significant role in stock selection.

Fixed income outlook

- The Monetary Board decided to reduce the policy rates by 2.50% in June 2023. The decision was mainly based on easing monetary conditions in line with the faster than expected slowing of inflation measured by Colombo Consumer Price Index (CCPI, 2021=100), which reduced to 25.20% in May 2023 from 35.3% in April 2023. Appreciation of the Sri Lankan Rupee coupled with the overall improvement in the external sector (despite the decline in exports) mainly due to foreign inflows through portfolio investments may have contributed further towards the significant reduction in policy rates.
- Following the monetary policy announcement, the benchmark 364-day Treasury bill rate recorded a sharp decline to 19.10% from 22.91% at the first Treasury bill auction held in June 2023. The yields of Treasury bonds across the yield curve depicted a similar trend, where the decline in yields were in the range of 3% - 4% during the week following the monetary policy announcement. Overnight liquidity shortage hovered around LKR 115 billion, while the CBSL holding of Government securities stood at LKR 2.59 trillion as at 7th June 2023.
- Interest rates will depend heavily on market dynamics and any new information on the progress of the overall debt restructuring process.

Equity outlook

- The two main indices of Colombo Stock Exchange, All Share Price Index (ASPI) and the S&P SL 20 Index (S&P SL), continued to record significant losses in May 2023. As a result, the year-to-date gain of ASPI as at 31st May 2023 reduced to 0.77% while the overall loss of S&P SL index increased to 8.12%.
- The negative investor sentiment continued through May 2023 as the overall market activity remained at subdued levels. The persistent uncertainties on the macro front coupled with the contractionary economic policies may have been the key reasons for the negative investor sentiment.
- However, if interest rates and inflationary pressures continue to decline, equity markets may witness an improvement in the overall sentiment during the second half of 2023.
