 Investment strategy: AIA Sri Lanka maintains a prudent investment strategy for its investment portfolios, in line with its investment philosophy and guidelines as set out in the investment policy. The Company advocates a long-term investment strategy supporting long-term growth. The equity strategy is driven by in-depth research with emphasis on growth and sustainability of earnings whilst principles such as liquidity, solvency and corporate governance also play a significant role in stock selection.

Fixed income outlook

- In the absence of a monetary policy review during October, policy rates remained unchanged, with the Standing Lending Facility Rate (the rate CBSL lends to commercial banks) was remained at 9.25% and the Standing Deposit Facility Rate (the rate which commercial banks place their excess cash with CBSL) was at 8.25% during the month.
- Treasury bill rates experienced a decrease across all tenures, with an average reduction of approximately 10 basis points. The benchmark yield for the 364-day T-bill dropped from 10.05% in October 2024 to 9.95%, reflecting a trend towards lower rates. Similarly, the weighted average yields for the shorter tenures also declined, with the 91-day T-bill rate falling to 9.32% and the 182-day T-bill rate moving down to 9.65%. These decreases highlight a general easing in yields across the board, likely in response to favorable market conditions.
- Foreign holdings of LKR-denominated Government securities strengthened in October, registering an inflow of LKR 13.5 billion. This increased foreign participation to 0.3% of total outstanding government securities, up from 0.23% in September. However, looking at the broader picture for 2024 year-to-date, foreign investors maintained a net selling position of LKR 64 billion.
- The Average Weighted Prime Lending Rate (AWPR) decreased by 9 basis points to 9.05% by the end of October from 9.32% from the preceding month. The Average Weighted Fixed Deposit Rate remained at 9.46% during the month.
- The year-on-year inflation, as measured by the Colombo Consumer Price Index dropped further during the month of October 2024, recording a deflation figure of -0.8% compared to a deflation figure of -0.5% recorded in September 2024. The decrease was primarily driven by the reduction in fuel prices. Food inflation (Y-o-Y) increased by 1.0% in October 2024, compared to a decline of 0.3% observed in September 2024 while Non-Food inflation (Y-o-Y) decreased further by 1.6% in October 2024 from a decline of 0.5% observed in September 2024.

Equity outlook

- The Sri Lankan equity Market witnessed a continued bullish movement due to the post-election confidence, which caused the All Share Price Index (ASPI) to increase by 7.7% which was a 915-point increase, whereas the more liquid S&P SL20 index increased even further by 11.9% for the month of October. The Capital Goods Sector, Banking sector, Food, Beverage & Tobacco sector and Diversified Financials were the primary sectors that drove the upward movement during the month of October. The main counters that contributed the most towards the upward movement during the month of October were John Keells Holdings, Commercial Bank, Distilleries Company, Dialog and Melstarcorp respectively.
- For the month of October, the Colombo Stock Exchange exhibited a Net foreign outflow of LKR 423 million indicating a continuation of the trend of foreign exits from the local equity market with a Net foreign outflow of LKR 6.32 Billion on a year to date basis. Despite foreign outflows local investor activity surged even further as the average daily turnover during the month increased by 67% from the preceding month reaching LKR 2.7 billion indicating an improvement of market engagement. The price-to-earnings (P/E) ratio, increased to 8.52, signaling a rebound in investor sentiment.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where are AIA Unit Linked Funds invested?

The Unit Linked funds are invested in instruments specified in the policy documents i.e. government securities, debt securities and money market investments such as fixed deposits, etc, and in shares listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange. These investments are made within the parameters provided in the policy documents, in order to achieve the investment objective of each fund.

- Equities: Investment in shares listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange.
- Debt Securities: Investments in Treasury instruments, Corporate Debt instruments, repurchase agreements of Treasury instruments and Corporate Debt instruments of longer maturity tenor than those classified as Money Market investments.
- Money Market investments: Funds held as Corporate Debt instruments, overnight repurchase agreements of Treasury instruments, Corporate Debt instruments with a tenor of one day, investments in Treasury instruments and cash in bank current accounts.

Treasury instruments refers to instruments such as Treasury Bills and Treasury Bonds issued by the government of Sri Lanka. Corporate debt refers to debt instruments issued by financial institutions and companies.

How does AIA manage Unit Linked funds?

AIA maintains a prudent investment strategy for its investment portfolios, in line with its investment philosophy and guidelines, as set out in the Company's investment policy. The investments of each fund are carried out in line with the investment objectives of the respective fund. The Company advocates a long-term investment strategy supporting long-term growth. The equity strategy is driven by in-depth research with emphasis on growth and sustainability of earnings whilst principles such as liquidity, solvency and corporate governance also play a significant role in stock selection.

Why do unit prices of the Growth & Balanced Funds fluctuate in comparison to the other Unit Linked Funds?

The prices of all unit linked funds move in tandem with the price movements or market values of their underlying investments. The Growth & Balanced funds invest in shares listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange. As prices of shares can be volatile at times, the unit prices of Growth & Balanced funds too can move higher or lower in tandem with these movements in share prices.

Is the All Share Price Index (ASPI) or S&P20 movement comparable with AIA Growth & Balanced Funds Performance?

The Growth and Balance fund performance may differ from the performances of the ASPI and the S&P SL 20 stock indices due to the fund portfolios holding different stocks and different proportions of stocks when compared to those used in the computation of the indices. The ASPI measures the movement of share prices of all listed companies on the Colombo Stock Exchange based on market capitalization and the S&P SL 20 measures the movement of share prices of 20 of the leading companies selected and rebased on certain criteria including market capitalisation.

▪ What are the Investment Strategies mentioned in the Policy Document* ?

Depending on the policy you have purchased, at the date of commencement the policy owner selects the investment strategy out of the four available; namely Aggressive, Moderate, Cautious and Advanced. Aggressive, Moderate and Cautious strategies have their funds allocated and switched at predetermined milestones depending on the policy term. Policy owners can switch fund strategies on written request during the policy period subject to conditions. Policy owners with Advanced investment strategy are responsible for determining the allocation and switching throughout the lifetime of the policy.

▪ What are Unit switches and amendment of Regular Premium Allocation Proportions?

Depending on the policy you have purchased, your Investment Linked Long Term Insurance Policy allows you to be in control of your investments. Options such as Unit switches* and amendment of Regular Premium Allocation Proportions* may be available to you, so that you have total control over your long term investment.

- Unit switches: If you request to switch units from one unit linked fund to another, the Company will cancel units of equal amount from the fund from which the units are to be switched from at the Unit price of that fund prevailing on the day and after deduction of switching charge, if any, and the funds so generated will be used to create units in the fund in which the amount is to be switched to at the Unit price of that fund prevailing on the day. Note that the unit switches are not permitted into or out of the Protected Fund and Stable Money Market Fund.
- Amendment of Regular Premium Allocation Proportions: At the written request of the Policy Owner, the Company will amend the Allocation Proportion whereafter the previous Allocation Proportion will become ineffective, and the amended Allocation Proportion will be applicable to all future Basic Premiums received from the date of the Company's acceptance of the request. Note that the amendment of allocation proportions is not permitted into or out of the Stable Money Market Fund.

▪ How often can Unit switches and Amendment of Allocation Proportions be executed?

- There is no limitation on frequency of Unit switches*
- The Company will only allow two (2) requests for Amendment of the Allocation Proportion within any Policy Year*
- The relevant applicable charges will be applied as stipulated in the Policy Document
