Fund manager's outlook

Fixed income outlook

- The 364-day benchmark Treasury-bill rate increased by 14 basis points to 9.73%. Sri Lanka successfully raised USD 1.0 billion via a loan syndication which is expected to ease interest rates pressure in the immediate short term.
- Sri Lanka's trade balances have continued to widen amidst higher oil prices while inflation has increased for the month of May to 4.0%. The increase in the US interest rates coupled with recent spike in oil prices is expected to add pressure on local interest rates amidst Sri Lanka's heavy debt repayment schedule.
- Moreover, there is a tendency for fiscal slippage and handouts in the next few quarters ahead of Sri Lanka's election timeline.

Equity outlook

- ASPI declined by 2.03% for the month of May 2018 while the more liquid S&P SL 20 Index lost 2.54%.
- News of JKH being removed from MSCI Frontier Markets 100 Index led to selling in the blue-chip counter and foreign selling for the month stood at LKR 425 million (Year-to-date net foreign outflow of LKR 1.4 billion).
- Equity markets are expected to remain weak in the immediate short-term due to political uncertainty coupled with weaker disposable income weighing on corporate earnings growth.
