- The turbulent times have reduced market valuations bringing down the market PE ratio to 6.4x in April from a year to date high of 15.0x in January 2022

 Investment strategy: AIA Sri Lanka maintains a prudent investment strategy for its investment portfolios, in line with its investment philosophy and guidelines as set out in the investment policy. The Company advocates a long-term investment strategy supporting long-term growth. The equity strategy is driven by in-depth research with emphasis on growth and sustainability of earnings whilst principles such as liquidity, solvency and corporate governance also play a significant role in stock selection.

Fixed income outlook

- The monetary board increased policy rates by 7 percentage points, sighting the inflationary pressures driven by the build-up of aggregate demand, domestic supply disruptions, exchange rate depreciation and the elevated global commodity prices. As a result, interest rates increased further from the levels witnessed in March 2022. The benchmark 364-Day Treasury bill rate increased to 24.09% as at end April 2022.
- The Sri Lankan Rupee continued to depreciate against all hard currencies in April 2022. Inflation as measured by the CCPI (2013=100), increased to 29.8% in April 2022 on a year-on-year basis, owing to food inflation. The CBSL holding of Government Securities continued to increase as it exceeded LKR 1.8 trillion in April 2022, while the overnight market liquidity was a negative LKR 602.6 billion as at 29th April 2022.
- We expect the high interest rate regime to continue through Q2 2022. The policymakers will have to consider implementing a sustainable long-term strategy through economic reforms to address the prevailing structural issues of the economy.

Equity outlook

- The two main indices of the Colombo Stock Exchange (CSE), All Share Price Index (ASPI) and S&P SL 20 index, continued to decline during April 2022. The ailing macroeconomic concerns further weakened the investors sentiment which resulted in ASPI and S&P SL 20 indices to decline by 14.37% and 17.22% respectively, for the month.
- Contractionary policies in monetary and fiscal fronts are expected to result in a GDP contraction during 2022. Therefore, earnings forecasts of listed entities will be negatively impacted for FY 2022/23. Thus, we expect the equity market to be range bound in Q2 2022.
